"Friendliest, nicest people to work with when planning an event! We've held an annual conference at the Clarion Hotel Lexington for over 10 years. They have accommodated us at every turn and I have no hesitation recommending them as a place to stay. Great people to work with and look forward to many more years partnering with us to serve our membership."

"KASF AA has two conferences in Kentucky every year. Several have taken place at Clarion Hotel in Lexington. Clarion's sales department and staff make putting together a conference easy! They are there from the planning stages until the day it's over to make sure everything runs smoothly. The food is always good. And their conference areas are large and user-friendly. I look forward to having many more conferences at Clarion in the future!"
